SECTION-A

(Practical Criticism)

I. The Human Seasons

(20)

Four seasons fill the measure of the year;
There are four seasons in the mind of man:
He has his lusty spring, when fancy clear
Takes in all beauty with an easy span:
He has his summer, when luxuriously
Spring's honied cud of youthful thought he loves
To ruminate, and by such dreaming nigh
His nearest unto heaven: quiet loves
His soul has in its Autumn, when his wings
He furlleth close; contented so to look
Oh mists in idleness-to let fair things
Pass by unheaded as a threshold brook.
He has his winter too of pale misfeature,
Or else he would forego his mortal nature.

-John Keats
